

DEATH'S RELEASE FOR HENRY VOIGHT

He Fell From Tree Over Two Months Ago.

Sustained Injuries to Spine Which Paralyzed Him From His Hips Down.

POPULAR AMONG RIVERMEN

Mr. Henry Voight, 22 years old, died at 1:30 o'clock this morning at his home, 1028 South Fifth street, of injuries sustained in an accident near Elizabethtown, Ill., June 5. Death was not unexpected as he had been lingering since the accident with no possible hope of recovery.

Young Voight was working on the Str. Wilford, commanded by his father, Captain Charles W. Voight. The boat tied up near Elizabethtown and the young man went ashore, climbed a tree for mulberries and lost his hold. The fall was 30 feet and he alighted in such a way as to injure his spine. His lower limbs were paralyzed from the injury and for a time the young man was unconscious, suffering from concussion.

His spine was affected permanently and the physicians gave up all hope for him. Gradually he sank until this morning he passed away. He was conscious to the last.

He was born and raised in Paducah and had many friends. He received his education here and had adopted life on the river. He was popular among his many friends and news of his death will be received with regret.

He leaves a father, Captain Charles Voight, one brother, Mr. John Voight, and three sisters, Mrs. Henry Metzler, Misses Minnie and Nell Voight.

"CALL OF THE WILD."

"It's always the way, Wallace! When a fellow starts on the long trail, he's never willing to quit. It'll be the same with you if you go with me to Labrador. When you come home, you'll hear the voice of the wilderness calling you to return, and it will lure you back again."

It seems but yesterday that Hubbard uttered those prophetic words as he and I lay before our blazing camp fire in the snow-covered Shawangunk Mountains on that November night in the year 1901, and planned that fateful trip into the unexplored Labrador wilderness which was to cost my dear friend his life, and both of us indescribable sufferings and hardships. And how true a prophecy it was! You who have smelled the camp-fire smoke; who have drunk in the pure forest air, laden with the smell of the fir tree; who have dipped your paddle into untamed waters or climbed mountains with the knowledge that none but the red man has been there before you, or have, perchance, had to fight the wilds and nature for your very existence; you of the wilderness brotherhood can understand how the fever of the exploration gets into one's blood and draws one back again to the forests and the barrens in spite of resolutions to "go no more."

It was more than this, however, that lured me back to Labrador. There was the vision of dear old Hubbard as I so often saw him during our struggle through that rugged northland wilderness, wasted in form and ragged in dress, but always hopeful and eager, his undying spirit and indomitable will focused in his words to me, and I can still see him as he looked when he said them:

"The work must be done, Wallace, and if one of us falls before it is completed the other must finish it."

I went back to Labrador to do the work he had undertaken, but which he was not permitted to accomplish. His exhortation appealed to me as a command from my leader—a call to duty—Dillon Wallace, in "The Long Labrador Trail," in the Outing Magazine for August.

ISSUE TICKETS FOR HALF FARES

Manager Bleeker Agrees to Suggestion of Mayor.

System Will be Adopted on Cars of the Paducah Traction Company in Future.

AN AMICABLE UNDERSTANDING.

Half fare tickets will be issued to children on the cars of the Paducah Traction company.

This information was conveyed in a letter from General Manager John S. Bleeker, of the company, to Mayor Yeiser, in response to a suggestion from the latter that such method might be pursued.

Complaints at the old system of accepting only tickets for half fares on the street cars came to the ears of Mayor Yeiser and he took up the matter with Manager Bleeker. The latter immediately responded that he would gladly remedy any disagreeable features about the system and said he was investigating the plans in force in other cities.

The communication of Manager Bleeker, agreeing to the suggestion of Mayor Yeiser is as follows:

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 20, 1906.
The Honorable D. A. Yeiser, Mayor, Paducah, Ky.

Dear Sir:—Referring to recent correspondence between us on the subject of half fares for children between the ages of five and twelve years riding on the cars and confirming verbal conversation, in which it was suggested that a more convenient method of complying with our franchise regulation than that at present in force, would be the giving of half fare tickets by conductors, as change to children between the ages of five and twelve years, upon presentation by them, to the conductor, of five cents for fare,—the ticket to be good for one ride on our cars,—I am pleased to be able to report that the method suggested can be carried out by us. Accordingly I am having prepared a form of ticket which will fulfill the conditions imposed upon us when this regulation is enforced and am adjusting our office methods in conformity herewith and hope to be able to change our system of half fare collections at a very early date.

I thank you for calling my attention to the annoyance to which our patrons have been subjected by the custom of collecting half fares which we have been following for so many years, and trust that the new system will prove more satisfactory.

I wish to assure you once more of my desire to co-operate with you in any and all ways looking towards the improved facilities for handling traffic on the street cars in this city and should be glad to receive suggestions along this line at any time.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN S. BLEEKER, Mgr.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after over-eating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by Lang Bros.
